

ENTRY OF SUBSTITUTE SPECIFICATION

In response to the objections to the specification in the March 17, 2004 Office Action, Applicants respectfully submit the attached substitute specification. This substitute specification includes a proper priority claim in the first paragraph and appropriate sequence identification numbers associated with disclosed nucleotide and polypeptide sequences. No new matter has been entered as a result of this amendment.